

SEXUAL ASSAULT AWARENESS MONTH | April 2019

@BeWellSU

#IWillTBTN Campaign

All Month

Reducing sexual violence and other forms of violence in our community takes everyone coming together to create change. We invite you to go on social media and share how you'll be part of creating positive change to reduce sexual violence. Use the hashtag #IWillTBTN and tag @BeWellSU to tell us how you'll work to end violence.

SU Shines a Light on Sexual Violence

All Month

The Hall of Languages will be illuminated in teal to raise awareness and support survivors that have been impacted by sexual violence, or other forms of interpersonal violence. Use the hashtags #SUGoesTeal and #IWillTBTN and tag @BeWellSU to share your photos.

Go Teal Decorating Contest

All Month | Judging starts Monday, April 15

Hosted by the Office of Health Promotion

Open to all SU offices and departments. Decorate your space teal to help raise awareness for sexual & relationship violence. Residence Halls are encouraged to have their residents decorate their doors and run their own building or floor contests. Winners will be announced Friday, April 26.

Teal Tuesday

National Campaign

Tuesday, April 2 | All Day

The SU community is encouraged to wear teal to show our support for survivors of sexual assault.

Surviving the Silence: A Conversation on Race and Sexual Assault

Wednesday, April 3, 7 p.m., doors open at 6:30 p.m.

Goldstein Auditorium

Hosted by the Office Multicultural Affairs, Student Association, Counseling Center, Office Health Promotion; Equal Opportunity, Inclusion, and Resolution Services; Office of Student Assistance, Panhellenic Council, Vera House Inc.

A panel on race and sexual assault featuring Lizzette Martinez and Faith Rodgers from the Lifetime docu-series "Surviving R. Kelly," representatives from the Counseling Center, and the Department of African American Studies. Moderated by Angela M. Douglas, Associate Director, Vera House Inc.

"Food for Thought" Sexual Assault Campus Resource Fair & Panel Discussion

Thursday, April 4, 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. (resource fair)

Thursday, April 4, Noon – 1 p.m. (panel discussion)

Schine Atrium and Schine 228B

Hosted by Equal Opportunity, Inclusion and Resolution Services (EOIRS)

Meet the people working to end sexual assault on campus and discover the support options available to students, faculty, and staff at SU. A light lunch will be provided.

It's On Us Workshop ft. Samantha Skaller

Thursday, April 4, 7 – 8:30 p.m.

Location TBD

Hosted by It's On Us SU

A workshop with activist and former It's On Us organizer, Samantha Skaller, will engage students in conversation surrounding activism and the It's On Us movement. Light snacks will be provided, with gluten-free and vegetarian options available.

Cookies, Consent, and Cups, Oh My!

Friday, April 5th, 4:30 – 8 p.m.

Location TBD

Hosted by It's On Us SU

A volunteer event collecting cups for the future annual cups display. It's On Us SU invites the campus community to join them on social media to discuss the cups display, movement, and the future.

Yoga as Healing

Wednesday, April 10, and April 24, 5:05 – 5:55 p.m.

Flanagan Gym Exercise Room

Hosted by the Sexual & Relationship Violence Student Education & Prevention Team* (SEPT)

Trauma informed yoga designed to promote healing through meditation and to regulate the nervous system through mind-body alignment. Yoga mats will be available.

It's On Us Mindful Monday Mile

Monday, April 15, 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Meet Outside Schine Student Center

Hosted by It's On Us SU and Healthy Monday Syracuse

Find a little balance in the midst of the semester as we take a few mindful moments and participate in gentle physical activity.

Phallacies

Monday, April 15, 7:30 p.m., doors open at 7 p.m.

Grant Auditorium

Hosted by SEPT*

An enlightening comedic show by the Phallacies' performance group. Explore healthy masculinity, relationships, and more with humor and wit. Phallacies is an organization working to support healthy masculinities.

Miss Representation Film and Dialogue

Thursday, April 18, 6 – 9 p.m.

Goldstein Student Center

Hosted by Skyhalls RHA

A screening of the Miss Representation film followed by discussion. This documentary explores how the media's often disparaging portrayals of women contribute to the underrepresentation of females in positions of leadership.

Be Orange Training (Student Session)

Monday, April 22, 6 – 8:30 p.m.

Huntington Hall 107

Hosted by OHP

An interactive workshop engaging participants in dialogue on the complexities of sexual violence prevention. Participants will explore what it means to be an empowered bystander and have the opportunity to apply the concept to their everyday lives. Participants will receive a certificate of completion for attending. Please register online at healthpromotion.syr.edu.

Let's Spill the Tea on Sex and Relationships

Tuesday, April 23, 7 – 8:30 p.m.

Location TBD

Hosted by Vera House Inc.

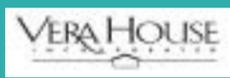

Join SU students and Vera House staff for an informal and open conversation on the 'ins and outs' of relationships, sexuality and consent. Refreshments will be served.

Syracuse University
Equal Opportunity, Inclusion, and
Resolution Services

Syracuse University
Recreation Services

Syracuse University
Office of Residence Life

Syracuse University
David B. Falk College of Sport and Human Dynamics

Syracuse University
Office of Health Promotion

Syracuse University
Office of Student Assistance

Syracuse University
Health Services

Syracuse University
Counseling Center

Syracuse University
Office of Multicultural Affairs